Plaintiff Lynn Freeman (“Plaintiff”), brings this class action on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, by and through undersigned counsel, and for her Complaint against Progressive Direct Insurance Company (“Defendant” or “Progressive”) states and alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a class action in which Plaintiff seeks to represent Progressive insureds in South Carolina who received a payment for the loss of a totaled vehicle where Progressive used valuation reports prepared by Mitchell International, Inc. (“Mitchell”) to determine the actual cash value of the loss vehicles. Under the terms of its insurance policies, Progressive has a duty to pay, and represents that it does pay, the actual cash value of a loss vehicle when adjusting total loss claims. By using Mitchell valuation reports, Progressive systemically thumbs the scale against its insureds when calculating the actual cash value of their loss vehicles by applying so-called “Projected Sold Adjustments.”

2. Instead of using the internet list price of comparable vehicles, Progressive improperly reduce that price, and in turn the valuation amount, by applying Projected Sold

Adjustments without any documentation that the assumed discount was available. These adjustments are based on the factually erroneous assumption that, during the Class period, insureds would be able to negotiate a reduction in the list price of comparable used automobiles, which during the Class period would be highly atypical and contrary to the modern used car industry's market pricing and inventory management practices.

3. The adjustments also are contrary to appraisal standards and methodologies that do not permit arbitrary adjustments not based on observed and verifiable data. The impropriety and arbitrariness of Progressive's Projected Sold Adjustments are further demonstrated by the fact that (a) they are not applied by the major competitor of Progressive's vendor Mitchell and (b) not applied by Progressives to insureds in other states, including California and Washington.

4. This pattern and practice of undervaluing comparable and total loss vehicles when paying automobile total loss claims through the systemic use of these factually erroneous adjustments, which benefits the insurer at the expense of the insured, violates Progressive's policies with its insureds.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. Plaintiff and all proposed class members are citizens of the State of South Carolina. Progressive is an insurance company authorized to do business in the State of South Carolina, and, at all relevant times hereto, was engaged in the marketing, sale, and issuance of automobile insurance policies in the State of South Carolina.

6. The compensatory damages being sought by Plaintiff do not exceed $75,000, and no individual member of the Class would possess a compensatory damage claim in excess of $75,000. Additionally, the aggregate compensatory damages (in the amount of Projected Sold Adjustments wrongfully deducted), claimed by Plaintiff and the Class are believed to be below the $5,000,000 federal jurisdictional threshold under the Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”).

7. Accordingly, this Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this lawsuit.

8. Venue is proper pursuant to SC Code § 15-7-70.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff Lynn Freeman resides in Aiken County and is a citizen of the State of South Carolina. At all relevant times hereto, Plaintiff was contracted with Progressive for automobile insurance. On or about May 19, 2021, Plaintiff’s insured vehicle was deemed a total loss.

10. Defendant Progressive is an automobile insurance company that owns numerous offices throughout the United States, including the State of South Carolina. Defendant’s corporate headquarters are located at 6300 Wilson Mills Road, Mayfield Village, Ohio 44143. Defendant conducts business in South Carolina through insurance agents and other company personnel.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

11. Plaintiff owned a 2020 Chevrolet Equinox LS that was deemed a total loss on or around May 19, 2021.

12. Like all members of the putative Class, Plaintiff made a first-party property damage claim with Progressive.

13. Like all members of the putative Class, Progressive declared Plaintiff’s vehicle to be a total loss.

14. Pursuant to the terms of its contracts, which have been substantively identical for all putative Class members during the Class period, Progressive elected to pay Ms. Freeman the actual cash value of the insured vehicle.

15. When calculating its valuations and claims payments, Progressive systemically employs a routine “total loss settlement process.” The process has no material differences relevant to this action.

16. This process involves obtaining a “Vehicle Valuation Report” from Mitchell and then using and relying upon the valuation provided to determine the benefit payment under the insured’s policy.

17. Progressive provided a Vehicle Valuation Report to Ms. Freeman on or around May 19, 2021. See Exhibit 1.

18. Progressive valued Plaintiff’s total loss claim at $20,531.63¹ and paid Plaintiff that amount as the actual cash value of his totaled vehicle.

19. To arrive at that valuation, the Vehicle Valuation Report provided the prices of three different comparable vehicles advertised for sale online and applied a Projected Sold Adjustment of approximately 5% to each one. Id. at 5–6.

20. Progressive provides no data specific to the comparable vehicles or any explanation of industry practices in its Vehicle Valuation Reports to support any Projected Sold Adjustment, much less the specific downward adjustments used in Plaintiff’s valuation reports. Instead, the only explanation is buried on the last page of each report, stating in full: “Projected Sold Adjustment – an adjustment to reflect consumer purchasing behavior (negotiating a different price than the listed price).” See Exhibit 1 at 7.

¹ This amount is before the applicable deductible and does not include tax, title, and transfer fees.

21. In truth, Progressive’s Projected Sold Adjustments do not reflect market realities (the context in which “consumer behavior” occurs) and run contrary to customary automobile dealer practices and inventory management, where list prices are priced to market to reflect the intense competition in the context of internet pricing and comparison shopping. A negotiated price discount would be highly atypical and therefore is not proper to include in determining actual cash value. The inclusion of this significant downward adjustment purportedly to “reflect consumer purchasing behavior” is particularly improper in the context of this action—insureds who have suffered a total loss of their vehicle and need to procure a replacement have limited time to search out the illusory opportunity to obtain the below-market deal Progressive assumes always exists without any explanation or support.

22. Moreover, Progressive’s Projected Sold Adjustments are contrary to appraisal standards. There are multiple generally-recognized and acceptable methodologies for determining actual cash value, including use of comparable vehicles. Progressive begins the process of valuing loss vehicles using a comparative methodology but improperly deviates from that process by thumbing the scales against its insureds. Progressive documents the loss vehicle’s and each comparable vehicle’s mileage, options, and trim, which are compared in the report, and makes dollar adjustments accordingly. Plaintiff does not challenge these documented adjustments. At this stage of the process, Progressive abandons the comparative methodology and applies adjustments that are contrary to proper appraisal methodologies for determining actual cash value. Appraisers use advertised prices and only make adjustments based on observed and verifiable data; appraisal standards do not permit arbitrary adjustments from the advertised price based upon undocumented and unverifiable projections and assumptions.

23. The impropriety and arbitrariness of Progressive's Projected Sold Adjustments are further demonstrated by the fact that Mitchell's primary competitor in providing valuation reports to insurance companies—CCC Intelligent Solutions—does not apply these adjustments. Instead, CCC Intelligent Solutions uses list prices.

24. The impropriety and arbitrariness of Progressive's Projected Sold Adjustments are further demonstrated by the fact that it does not apply these adjustments when valuing total losses in California and Washington. There is no justification for applying these adjustments when valuing total losses in South Carolina while not subjecting California and Washington claimants to the same negative adjustments.

25. Ms. Freeman and each member of the Class was damaged by Progressive's application of these Projected Sold Adjustments because they were not paid the actual cash value they would have received had Progressive applied proper methodologies and appraisal standards consistent with its contractual obligations and representations.

26. Were it not for this improper, factually erroneous adjustment, the "Market Value" in each valuation report would have been higher, resulting in a higher payment to insureds for actual cash value. Id. at 1. Specifically, were it not for this unfounded, factually erroneous adjustment, Progressive's payment of actual cash value to Ms. Freeman would have been $1,080 higher,² before adding the related increase in payments for applicable sales taxes.

² $1,080 is the average of the Projected Sold Adjustments applied to each of the three comparable vehicles in Plaintiff's valuation report.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

27. This action is brought by Plaintiff as a class action, on his own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, under the provisions of Rule 23 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, for declaratory judgment and monetary restitution, plus interest, injunctive relief, costs, and attorney's fees. Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as a class action on behalf of the following class (the "Class"):

All persons insured by a contract of automobile insurance issued by Progressive to a South Carolina resident, and who, from the earliest allowable time through the date of resolution of this action, received a first-party total loss valuation and payment that included a downward adjustment premised on a "Projected Sold Adjustment" or similar adjustment.

28. Excluded from the Class are Defendant, any parent, subsidiary, affiliate, or controlled person of Defendant, as well as the officers and directors of Defendant and the immediate family members of any such person. Also excluded is any judge who may preside over this cause of action.

29. The exact number of the Class, as herein identified and described, is not known, but it is estimated to be at least one hundred. Accordingly, the Class is so numerous that joinder of individual members herein is impracticable.

30. There are common questions of law and fact in the action that relate to and affect the rights of each member of the Class, and the relief sought is common to the entire class. In particular, the common questions of law and fact include:

- a. Whether Progressive systemically applied Projected Sold Adjustments or substantially similar adjustments to calculate the value of total loss vehicles;
- b. Whether, through the above referenced practice, Progressive failed to pay its insureds the actual cash value of their loss vehicles;

- c. Whether, through the above referenced practice, Progressive breached its contracts with its insureds;
- d. Whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to declaratory and injunctive relief; and
- e. Whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to compensatory damages in the amount of the invalid adjustment applied to Plaintiff's and each Class member's valuation.

31. The claims of the Plaintiff, who is representative of the Class herein, are typical of the claims of the proposed Class, in that the claims of all members of the proposed Class, including the Plaintiff, depend on a showing of the same acts of Progressive giving rise to the right of Plaintiff to the relief sought herein. There is no conflict between the individually named Plaintiff and other members of the proposed Class with respect to this action, or with respect to the claims for relief set forth herein.

32. The named Plaintiff is the representative party for the Class, and is able to, and will fairly and adequately, protect the interests of the Class. The attorneys for Plaintiff and the Class are experienced and capable in complex civil litigation, insurance litigation, and class actions.

33. The amount in controversy for each Class member exceeds $100.00.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF CONTRACT

34. Plaintiff hereby repeats and realleges all preceding paragraphs contained herein.

35. Progressive's insurance contract with its insureds provides coverage for the total loss of a vehicle on the basis of actual cash value or replacement with another of like kind and quality. Moreover, in determining the actual cash value of a total loss vehicle, Progressive must consider the vehicle's fair market value at the time of loss.

36. Through the use of improper and unfounded Projected Sold Adjustments in Mitchell Valuation Reports, Progressive handled, adjusted, and paid Plaintiff's claim, and the claims of the members of the putative Class, for less than the actual cash value required by Progressive's insurance contracts.

37. Progressive's breaches have resulted in a systemic failure to pay the actual cash value of total loss vehicles as required under the contract.

38. Progressive's breaches of contract and violations of law have caused damages to Plaintiff and the Class. Plaintiff's and proposed Class members' damages include the amounts improperly deducted by Progressive from the insureds' payments on the basis of a Projected Sold Adjustment. Specifically, Plaintiff's damages are $1,080, exclusive of the taxes and fees owed on that amount, plus pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

39. Plaintiff hereby repeats and realleges all preceding paragraphs contained herein.

40. A judicable dispute between Plaintiff and the proposed Class and Progressive is before this Court under S.C. Code Ann. §15-53-10, et seq. concerning the construction of the auto insurance policies issued by Defendant and the rights arising under that policy.

41. Plaintiff, for herself and on behalf of the Class, seeks a declaration of rights and liabilities of the parties herein. Specifically, Plaintiff is seeking a declaration that in paying total loss claims with first-party insureds, it is a breach of the insurance contract with Progressive for Progressive to base the valuation and payment of claims on values of comparable vehicles that have been reduced by factually erroneous Projected Sold Adjustments.

42. Progressive's unlawful common policy and general business practice of applying Projected Sold Adjustments is ongoing. Accordingly, Progressive has breached, and continues to breach, the express terms of its contracts of insurance with Plaintiff and members of the Class requiring it to settle total loss claims on the basis of the total loss vehicle's actual cash value.

43. As a result of these breaches of contract, Plaintiff and the proposed Class members have been injured. Plaintiff's and proposed Class members' damages include the amounts illegally deducted by Progressive from the insureds' payments.

44. Plaintiff seeks a declaration that Progressive's application of unfounded Projected Sold Adjustments results in a valuation of less than the actual cash value Progressive is required under its insurance contracts to pay insureds.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, respectfully requests that this Court:

- a) determine that this action may be maintained as a class action under Rule 23 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, appoint Plaintiff as class representative, and appoint undersigned counsel as Class Counsel;
- b) enter an order finding that Progressive's actions described herein constitute a breach of contract;

- c) enter a declaratory judgment that in paying total loss claims with first-party insureds, it is a breach of the insurance contract with Progressive for Progressive to base the valuation and payment of claims on values of comparable vehicles that have been reduced by Projected Sold Adjustments;
- d) enter further relief based on the declaratory judgment including an order enjoining Progressive from basing the valuation and payment of claims on values of comparable vehicles that have been reduced by Projected Sold Adjustments;
- e) enter an order requiring Progressive to pay compensatory damages to Plaintiff and all members of the putative Class in the amount of 100% of the proceeds that Progressive wrongfully deducted from its insureds' payments in the form of Projected Sold Adjustments and related underpayment of taxes;
- f) award pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rate permitted by applicable law;
- g) award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to applicable law; and
- h) grant such other legal and equitable relief as the Court may deem appropriate.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff and the Class members hereby request a trial by jury.

Respectfully submitted,

Vehicle Valuation Methodology Explanation

WorkCenter Total Loss was designed and built in conjunction with J.D. Powers, experts in data analysis and vehicle pricing and a highly trusted name among consumers. With years of experience in vehicle pricing, J.D. Power is a credible, third-party expert whose name provides consumer recognition and confidence. WCTL provides a consistent methodology across all vehicles and it includes valid comparable vehicles that most closely resemble the totaled vehicle and are similar to the vehicles a consumer would find in their own research.

WorkCenter Total Loss produces accurate and easy-to-understand vehicle valuations via this five step process:

Step 1 - Locate Comparable Vehicles

Locate vehicles that are the closest match to the loss vehicle in the same market area. WorkCenter Total Loss utilizes consumer-based vehicle sources along with inventory directly from Dealerships. When available WCTL also provides sold vehicle records from sources such as J.D. Powers.

Step 2 - Adjust Comparable Vehicles

Make adjustments to the prices of the comparable vehicles. The comparable vehicles are identical to the loss vehicle except where adjustments are itemized. There are several types of comparable vehicle adjustments

- Projected Sold Adjustment - an adjustment to reflect consumer purchasing behavior (negotiating a different price than the listed price).
- Mileage Adjustment - an adjustment for differences in mileage between the comparable vehicle and the loss vehicle.
- Equipment- adjustments for differences in equipment between the comparable vehicle (e.g. equipment packages and options) and the loss vehicle.

Step 3 - Calculate Base Vehicle Value

The base vehicle value is calculated by averaging the adjusted prices of the comparable vehicles.

Step 4 - Calculate Loss Vehicle Adjustments

There are four types of loss vehicle adjustments:

- Condition Adjustment
Adjustments to account for the condition of the loss vehicle prior to the loss.
- Prior Damage Adjustment
Adjustments to account for any prior damage present on the loss vehicle prior to the loss.
- After Market Part Adjustment
Adjustments to account for any after market parts present on the loss vehicle prior to the loss.
- Refurbishment Adjustment
Adjustments to account for any refurbishment performed on the loss vehicle prior to the loss.

Step 5 - Calculate the Market Value

The Market Value is calculated by applying the loss vehicle adjustments to the base value.
